CURRENT COMMENT.

St. Paul Globe: It is thought that the next Indian outbreak will be in the Tannian reservation.

Boston Record: Higgins is developing from a simple plot to the face of the administration into a large and bold scheme.

Philadelphia Press: Brother Hendricks has returned to Washington, and he will not be a political figure.

Vicksburg Post: Mr. Meade has as much right to hold office as either Mr. Barlow or Mr. Lincoln.

Philadelphia Press: Judge Lambert has been appointed to the position of chief clerk of the court.

Detroit Post: Jeffersonian simplicity is illustrated by Minister Phelps at the court of St. James.

Chicago Inter Ocean: Dr. Leonard, the prohibition candidate for Governor of Ohio, does not seem able to deliver the Methodist Church over to St. John.

Secretary Whitney's Home. The Secretary of the Navy's New York Residence—Elegant Apartments.

Mr. Whitney's home stands at Fifty-seventh street and Fifth avenue, facing the Norman chateau of Cornelius Vanderbilt.

Washington dispatch says that since Cleveland and a number of members of his Cabinet left Washington.

Mr. V. H. Middleton devotes his entire time to our principal work.

PUT TO ITS TRUMP.

Two Dynamite Cartridges Fall to Shatter a Huge Piece of Steel, But These Do the Work.

The Lackawanna Iron and Coal Company has for a long time been trying to devise some way of breaking up a lot of six-ton chunks of steel.

A pair of dynamite cartridges were used to shatter the chunks.
